

BOARD OBSERVER PROGRAM

Application Information

The Board Observer Program (BOP) is a partnership between the Philadelphia Bar Foundation, the Delivery of Legal Services Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association (DLSC), and the Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association (YLD). The BOP gives young lawyers practicing in Philadelphia County the opportunity to learn more about local legal services organizations and other non-profits, and to gain the leadership skills necessary to serve on Boards of such organizations as well as to succeed in their future careers.

An applicant for BOP must be:

- A member of the Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association; and
- Licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and be in good standing.

If you are not yet a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, you must join by the time your application is submitted. If you are a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association who has not reached his or her 37th birthday or are within the first three years of admission, you are automatically a member of the YLD. Information on membership may be found at www.philabar.org.

Applicants with a demonstrated interest in community service and/or pro bono work are preferred, but prior experience in these areas is not required for participation. Applicants who are not selected for the program are encouraged to reapply next year.

To apply, complete the application form and provide a current résumé. Your résumé should highlight any community service and/or pro bono experience and should indicate previous or current Board service.

Please send application material via email to: Jessica Hilburn-Holmes, Esq., Executive Director, Philadelphia Bar Foundation at info@philabarfoundation.org with the subject line: BOP Application 2019 [Applicant's Name]. You may also send any questions to that address, or you may reach Jessica by phone at 215-238-6347.

Applications for the 2019 Program must be submitted by September 10, 2018.
