

2020 PHILADELPHIA BAR FOUNDATION AWARD

The Philadelphia Bar Foundation Award was originally established to honor the memory of Louis D. Apothaker, a prominent Philadelphia attorney and past president of the Bar Foundation who was an outstanding leader within the legal profession and in the community. The Bar Foundation Award carries on the tradition started by the Apothaker family in 1979 and recognizes a public interest attorney who provides exceptional service to the non-profit legal services community.

A $2,500 check is presented to the award recipient.
