

2022 PHILADELPHIA BAR FOUNDATION AWARD

The Philadelphia Bar Foundation Award recognizes a public-interest attorney who is dedicating his/her/their life to equal access to justice by working in, and providing exceptional service to, the nonprofit legal services field. The Bar Foundation Award (originally known as the Apothaker Award to honor the memory of Louis D. Apothaker, a prominent Philadelphia attorney and past president of the Bar Foundation) carries on the tradition begun by the Apothaker family in 1979 by honoring an outstanding leader within the legal profession and the public-interest community.

To nominate a public-interest attorney, please complete this form and provide a brief narrative supporting the nomination. Additional materials, e.g., narratives/testimonials from other public interest attorneys/related professionals, are strongly encouraged and help to strengthen your nomination.
