

THE JUDGE WILLIAM M. MARUTANI FELLOWSHIP

The Judge William M. Marutani Fellowship (“Fellowship”) was established by the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Pennsylvania (“APABA-PA”) in conjunction with the Philadelphia Bar Foundation. The Fellowship serves to honor the legacy of Judge Marutani, the first Asian American judge in Pennsylvania, a distinguished member of the judiciary who served both the Asian American community and the community at large for many years. Judge Marutani’s exemplary career is a model for current students who are committed to public service.

Current first-year and second-year Asian Pacific American law students attending law school in Pennsylvania and the Greater Philadelphia Area (including, but not limited to, Penn State Dickinson Law, Penn State Law, Rutgers Law School-Camden, Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law, University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School, Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law, Widener University Delaware Law School, Widener University Commonwealth Law School, Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Duquesne University, and University of Pittsburgh School of Law) are eligible to apply. Applicants are not eligible if they previously received the Marutani Fellowship.

The Fellowship will provide a stipend to subsidize a summer internship position with a non-profit public interest organization or with a federal, state or municipal government entity (including the judiciary) in Pennsylvania or in the Greater Philadelphia area. Internships must be secured by the time of the interview, but not necessarily by the time of the application.

Finalists will be selected based upon law school transcripts, past and present work and community service experience, accomplishments and awards, character, and an essay. Each finalist will be interviewed by the Fellowship Selection Committee. 2023 interviews are expected to take place during the last week of March or the first week of April.

The Fellowship recipient(s) will receive a stipend, up to $6000, for full-time summer employment (of at least ten weeks) at an organization described above. Applicants are eligible for the Marutani Fellowship even if they seek or receive other sources of summer funding.

After completing the internship, the Fellowship recipient will be required to complete a two-page report summarizing his/her summer experience. This report shall be submitted in a finished form appropriate for publication in the APABA-PA’s newsletter. The Fellowship recipient will also be recognized at the APABA-PA’s annual banquet in the fall. Attendance at the banquet is a condition of the Fellowship.

Applications are due March 6, 2023.

(See next page for application instructions).

THE HONORABLE WILLIAM M. MARUTANI

The Honorable William M. Marutani served as a judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County from 1975 to 1986. When appointed to the bench in 1975, Judge Marutani became the first Asian American outside of the Pacific Coast states to preside as a judge of a court of general jurisdiction. Judge Marutani was later elected to a full ten-year term in 1977. During his tenure, he issued the decision requiring all-boys Central High School to admit female students in 1983.

In 1942, Judge Marutani, a second-generation Japanese American, served six months in an American internment camp following the Pearl Harbor attack. Later during the war, he served in the U.S. Military Intelligence Service (MIS).

As an attorney, Judge Marutani participated in the civil rights drives in the South and helped organize the 1963 March on Washington for the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL). From 1960 to 1970, he served as national legal counsel to the JACL, during which time he also served as a volunteer civil rights lawyer in cases involving the desegregation of schools and the promotion of voter registration drives in Mississippi. In 1967, Judge Marutani appeared on behalf of the JACL as an amicus before the U.S. Supreme Court to present oral argument in Loving v. Virginia, the seminal case that struck down anti-miscegenation laws in 17 states.

Up until his death in November 2004, Judge Marutani also served on numerous civic and charitable boards and commissions. Most notably, in 1981 he was appointed to the Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians by President Jimmy Carter. The Commission concluded that the internment of Japanese Americans was the unjust result of racism, wartime hysteria, and a failure of political leadership.
