

Job Posting

Title: Director of Community Engagement

Are you passionate about legal equality? Are you motivated to address the needs of the underserved communities in Philadelphia? Do you believe that everyone has the right to equal access to justice? If yes, then this may be the opportunity you are looking for. The Philadelphia Bar Foundation is actively recruiting candidates for a full-time Director of Community Engagement role. This role combines development/fundraising, marketing, and community outreach to ensure the foundation is aligning with the civil justice needs of individuals and communities in the city of Philadelphia.

What will you do?

The Director of Community Engagement works in partnership with the Executive Director to advance the mission and strategic goals of the Philadelphia Bar Foundation and its EJC affiliate, PBF Holdings, Inc., through the oversight and implementation of strategic donor and community engagement. The Director drives existing and novel plans for external outreach and endowment building for the Foundation and the Equal Justice Center initiatives, including fundraising, donor cultivation and relationships, marketing, advertising, public relations, media relations, promotions, online communications, events, communications, and community partnerships. The Director supervises two direct-reports: Development & Sustainability Lead, and Communication & Advocacy Lead.

What can you bring to PBF?

Passion for the organization's mission; a desire to engage with socio-economically diverse Philadelphia communities; and a familiarity with the legal industry and the Philadelphia legal system. A highly motivated, public-facing persona with a minimum of 5 years of relevant experience in development, community engagement, and /or operations management. Experience in fundraising, event management, digital communications, and outreach is required. A Bachelor's degree in Marketing, Communications, or a similar discipline is suggested. Certified Fund-Raising Executive (CFRE) accreditation preferred. A combination of education and/or experience will be given full consideration as appropriate.

Diversity Statement: At the Philadelphia Bar Foundation we believe that individually we make a statement, but collectively we make an impact. Diversity and inclusion powers that impact. We strive to create a sense of belonging by embracing our differences. We are an organization where everyone is valued, heard, and appreciated. The Philadelphia Bar Foundation encourages applicants from historically marginalized populations to consider our team as your next opportunity for change. We are committed to equal opportunity in all aspects of employment regardless of race, color, ancestry, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, age, citizenship, marital or family status, disability, gender identity or gender expression, veteran or military status or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

About the Philadelphia Bar Foundation: Philadelphia’s philanthropic hub for legal aid, engaging the legal community and embodying its commitment to access to justice for all. Through programs, grants, and partnerships, the Philadelphia Bar Foundation removes barriers to justice, engages the community in support of civil legal aid, and builds system-wide capacity to strengthen the provision of quality legal services and to ensure that all individuals understand their rights to equal justice under law.

Salary: $75,000

Benefits: Employer-paid healthcare, employer-funded pension plan, 13 paid holidays, and 4 weeks of vacation.

To apply: Email a resume and cover letter to rsoley@exudehc.com

For more information about our organization, please visit our websites:

The Philadelphia Bar Foundation

The Equal Justice Center